The Outaouais SPCA welcomed 901 animals (635 cats, 224 dogs, 42 small animals) during the summer (between June 25 and August 25).

Listen to Ericka Muzzo's column. She adds that the organization carried out 487 adoptions and reunited 110 lost animals with their owners.

Faced with the unexpected influx, the community supported the SPCA via food donations and items (especially on Amazon).

Ericka announces annual event The March of the Four Legs " september 13, 2024, in collaboration with the Quebec Cancer Foundation, to raise funds for vulnerable animals and people affected by cancer.
